

Questions Submitted For RFP # 2011-EM-9000 – Discovering Personal Genius

Questions submitted by Florida Center for Inclusive Communities-USF:

1. What are all the Florida Project SEARCH sites and will you share the contacts for each?

Answer: Yes, please see attached.

2. The term “community of learners” has a variety of meanings. What is this RFP’s definition of “community of learners”?

Answer: A community of learners is a group of people who share common emotions, values and beliefs. They are actively engaged in learning together from each other. The selected offeror will provide the opportunity for individuals participating in this project to organize a group to share information and support each other’s learning.

3. Will you please share the names of any publications or resources that describe the “community of learners” concept that you are using as your reference for your definition?

Answer: We have no specific resource to cite in our definition of “community of learners”. Please see response to number 2.

4. Will you please provide a specific example of “specific services to be provided”?

Answer: “Specific services to be provided” are specific activities to be undertaken to meet the outcomes defined in the RFP. For example, “creating an advisory committee” is a specific service to be provided.

5. Are appendices that would be in addition to the 15 page proposal limit permitted?

Answer: Yes

6. Are there materials, resources, or reports you can share from the FDDC’s Martin County Project Discovery? If so, will you share them?

Answer: Yes, we have materials in support of past and current Martin County Project Discover contracts that we would share. It may prove to be more beneficial for you to contact Ms. Willa Tyler, tylerw@martin.k12.fl.us or Ms. Peggy Mannering, mannerp@martin.k12.fl.us at Martin County Schools directly if you have specific question about Martin County Project Discover.
